

Transfer pricing team

We have a selected an experienced team drawn from our office in Bulgaria.

Detailed CVs will be introduced upon request.

This is the core team to service you.

Depending on your particular needs through out the working process we will introduce other experts with various experience.

As our goal is to establish long-term relationship with you in Bulgaria. We commit to provide the best experts that we have depending on the particular assignment.

Ekaterina Aleksova, Manager, Tax Services, Bulgaria

Ekaterina is a Tax Manager in PwC's Bulgaria office with 12 years of experience in the field of taxation.

Ekaterina works in the corporate income tax team and is involved in a number of tax reviews, due diligences, tax structuring projects and tax assignments including various cross-border transactions.

Since 2009, Ekaterina has been a member of the PwC Transfer Pricing network and has participated in various transfer-pricing projects, related to development of transfer pricing policy/documentation, as well as assistance in obtaining non-binding rulings from the local tax authorities on transfer pricing matters.

In August 2016 Ekaterina completed secondment in PwC Romania, specialising in the area of Transfer Pricing.

Ekaterina is holding a Master's degree in Business Taxation from Osnabrueck University, Germany and a Master's degree in Finance from the University of National and World Economics, Sofia, Bulgaria.